AN INVENTORY AND SURVEY OF THE ARMOURIES OF THE

Tower of London

By Chas. J. F. Foulkes, B.Litt., F.S.A., CURATOR OF THE ARMOURIES.

¶ In two noble volumes are comprised a record of the historical wealth and a permanent memorial of the antique charm of London's venerable fortress. Over 600 illustrations, wonderfully perfect in detail, among which are many full-page photogravure plates, make the work of the greatest fascination for all whose interest in Arms and Armour has been aroused by a visit to the Tower. There can be no better souvenir of such a visit.

Army Savings Association.—1. It is notified for A.O. 108 general information that the recognized body for pro- 1930 moting thrift throughout the Army is the Army Savings Association, affiliated to the National Savings Committee.
 The chairman of the Central Advisory Committee of the association is Major-General the Rt. Hon. J. E. B.
 Seely, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., T.D., and the secretary is Major H. Spencer Johnson, C.B.E. The address of the association is the office of the National Savings Committee, 20, Sanctuary Buildings, Westminster, S.W. 1.

2. Commanding officers will take all practical steps to encourage the formation of branches of the Army Savings Association in the units under their command in order to foster the spirit of foresight and the feeling of self-respect which are equally essential to the military training of the soldier and to good citizenship on his return to civil life. The president of every branch will be a selected officer, assisted if desired by a committee representative of all ranks. The formation of a branch will be notified to the Secretary, Central Advisory Committee, stating the name of the president.

Major H. Spencer Johnson is duly accredited by the Army Council to lecture to troops on Savings in the Army. Every facility will be given him to lecture to officers, N.C.Os. and men on the subject.

3. The arrangements now approved are designed to ensure continuity and uniform facilities for saving in units at home and abroad throughout a man's service.
 They also reduce the clerical labour which has hitherto been involved in many of the savings schemes in operation in the Army.

4. (a) Soldiers will be given an opportunity of investing part of the pay due to them and other monies in the Post Office Savings Bank or in National Savings Certificates.

(b) The channel of investment will be a Post Office
 Savings Bank account ("Army Savings" series).
 A soldier desiring to invest will fill in and hand to the officer from whom he receives his pay, S.B. Form 8E and will inform him of the weekly amount he wishes to invest. The officer will insert this information on Army Savings Form 1 and payments to the soldier will be regulated accordingly. The officer will also satisfy himself that the soldier is sufficiently in credit to justify the payment (see paragraphs 82 and 84, Pay

Army Orders.—June, 1930.

Duties Manual, 1926). He may cancel the payment altogether or, with the man's consent, reduce the amount to a lower sum, according to the state of the soldier's account. Soldiers who already make deposits in their Post Office Savings Bank accounts through War Office and India Office channels will be brought automatically within the scheme. Numbers in the "Army Savings" series will be assigned to their accounts as and when their deposit books are received in ordinary course in the Post Office Savings Bank. They need not furnish S.B. Form 8E.

- (c) The soldier will sign Army Savings Form 1 in duplicate. The original copy will support the entry as a "casual payment" in the pay list or pay and mess roll. The duplicate copy will be disposed of as in sub-paragraph (e) below.
- (d) A soldier desiring to invest any ready money in his possession will hand over the amount to the officer from whom he receives his pay who will enter it in the final money column of A.S. Form 1, take on the amount as cash in his cash account (Form 1 of A.F. N 1504A) and include it in the total for the month which will be disposed of in the manner described in sub-paragraph (e) below. No entry in respect of this transaction is required in the pay list or pay and mess rolls.
- (e) (i) At Home.—On the last pay day of the month each company, etc., commander will hand over to the branch president the amounts recovered or received for deposit together with the duplicate copies of A.S. Form 1. The branch president will transmit these forms to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, London, W. 14, together with a remittance for the total which will be made out in favour of H.M. Postmaster-General, the cheque being crossed "A/c. Payee." Any Forms S.B. 8E furnished by depositors remitting for the first time should be included.
- (ii) Overseas.—On the last pay day of the month each company, etc., commander will transmit to the branch president the duplicate copies of A.S. Form 1. The amounts recovered from or handed in by soldiers will be given up in Form 3 of the company account (A.F. N 1504A) for credit by the paymaster to "Post Office—A.O. 108 Savings Bank Deposits" supported by the 1930

The branch president will thereupon obtain a statement from the paymaster as to amounts credited by him in respect of the amounts given up by company, etc., commanders in their accounts. He will then despatch to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, London, W. 14, the duplicate A.S. Forms 1, together with the paymaster's statement, and any Forms S.B. 8E furnished by soldiers depositing for the first time.

A.S. Forms 1 will be prepared in sterling, and the equivalent in currency at the official rate of exchange for the relative month will be recovered as in sub-paragraph (c) above.

Only cash in the currency by which the soldier is normally paid may be handed in by a soldier for deposit. This will be entered on A.S. Form 1 in sterling at the current official rate of exchange when taken on as cash in the account of the company, etc., commander.

NOTE.—Interest on deposits will be allowed from the first day of the month following the month in which credit is given by the company, etc., commander in his company account.

(f) A Post Office Savings Bank book will be forwarded to the depositor as soon as his first deposit has been credited at the Post Office Savings Bank Department. The company, etc., commander will not make any entry in the book which will normally remain in the soldier's possession. The book will be sent to the Post Office Savings Bank—

(i) by the soldier himself whenever he wishes it brought up to date—and

(ii) on the occasions stated in paragraphs 5 and 6.

(g) On each of these occasions the Post Office Savings Bank Department will enter the book up to date. The soldier is not precluded from using his book for Post Office Savings Bank transactions independently of the Army Savings Association.

Withdrawals on demand

5. A soldier can at any time withdraw an amount of not more than £3, at home or overseas, if his Post Office Savings Bank book shows that he has sufficient money to his credit. (If he wants to withdraw deposits which have not yet been entered in his book he will apply as shown below for withdrawals other than on demand.)

- (a) At Home.—Application for a withdrawal on demand may be made to any Post Office doing Savings Bank business.
- (b) Overseas.—The soldier will apply on S.B. Form 10D to the officer from whom he receives his pay. The officer will satisfy himself that the Post Office Savings Bank book shows the soldier's credit to be not less than the amount to be withdrawn and will pay the soldier out of his balance of public money, entering the amount in his company account as a Savings Bank withdrawal. He will make no entry in the soldier's Post Office Savings Bank book, but will securely fasten inside it Part A of the form, and will send the book by the first convenient mail to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, by whom it will be returned direct to the soldier. The officer will in due course pass Part B of S.B. Form 10D to the paymaster as a voucher in support of the "Savings Bank withdrawals" charged in his company account, and the paymaster will forward it to the War Office (or local auditor) in support of his account.

Withdrawals other than on demand

6. A soldier wishing to withdraw more than £3, at home or overseas, or more than the amount actually entered in his Post Office Savings Bank book, will send his book and withdrawal application on S.B. Form 5A to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, who will return direct to the soldier the Post Office Savings Bank book and a withdrawal warrant.

- (a) At Home.—The soldier will encash the warrant at the Post Office at which he has asked for it to be made payable.
- (b) Overseas.—If the soldier cannot readily exchange the warrant for cash, he may present it to the officer from whom he receives his pay; the latter will encash it merely vouching the entry in his company account with the warrant form. In A.O. 108 encashing the warrant form the responsibility 1930 of the officer is limited to satisfying himself continued

 (i) that the form bears no evidence of alteration, and (ii) that the payee is the soldier named therein.

The officer will not require to see the soldier's Post Office Savings Bank book. The paymaster will in due course render the warrant form to the War Office (or local auditor) in support of the charge in his account against "Post Office Savings Bank Withdrawals".

Investments in National Savings Certificates

7. The soldier may give a standing instruction to the Post Office Savings Bank for the investment of his savings in excess of a certain fixed amount, not less than £5, his "ready money balance," in National Savings Certificates. For this purpose he will fill up a form of application S.B. Form 792 and send it to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, through his company, etc., commander.

Whenever the excess balance standing to the credit of the soldier amounts to 16s. or a multiple of 16s. the Post Office Savings Bank will purchase on his behalf National Savings Certificates and send them to the Controller, Money Order Department, General Post Office, Holloway, N. 7, for safe custody. Particulars of the certificates so purchased will be entered up in the soldier's Post Office Savings Bank book when that is from time to time sent to the Post Office Savings Bank, London, W. 14.

If the soldier wishes to obtain repayment of any of his savings certificates he will make application to the Controller, Money Order Department, on the usual form P 576 which can be obtained at home from any Money Order Post Office, or overseas, from the president of his branch of the savings association. A warrant for the amount will be sent direct to the soldier from the Money Order Department and he will encash it in the same way as warrants sent for withdrawals other than on demand from his Post Office Savings Bank account.

At stations overseas charges in the paymaster's account will be classified to "Post Office Repayment of National Savings Certificates."

When the soldier leaves the Colours, the savings certificates standing to his credit will be transmitted to him by the Controller, Money Order Department, on application.

Army Orders.—June, 1930.

A.O. 108 8. Specimen copies of a first pamphlet "Next month, 1930 next year" published by the Army Savings Association and supplies of the forms necessary for operating the scheme are being issued to all units. Further copies of these may be obtained on demand direct from the Secretary, Army Savings Association, 20, Sanctuary Buildings, Westminster, London, S.W. 1. Communications at home sent to that address need not be stamped.

10. Units now operating schemes under the above Army Orders should communicate with the Secretary (Major H. Spencer Johnson, C.B.E.) if they experience any difficulty in closing existing association accounts.

A.O. 109 Forage Allowance.—1. With reference to paragraph 461, Allowance Regulations, 1930, the following rates of money allowance in lieu of forage will be issued at home stations from 1st July, 1930, until further orders:—

6. Soldiers who re-enlist under this Army Order may, when they are in the last year of their re-enlistment engagements, be considered for further retention in the Service. Prolongation of service will be by extension under Section 78 (1) (c) of the Army Act, and a soldier may be permitted to extend the term of his re-enlistment engagement for the period necessary to enable him to complete 21 years' service exclusive of boy service, or to complete 5 years in the rank of warrant officer, Class I, or for any other purpose and period for which provision is made in King's Regulations for continuance beyond 21 years. A.O. 110

continued

The principle to be followed and the conditions for extension will, therefore, be those for continuance beyond 21 years under Section 85 of the Army Act and paragraph 236, et seq. King's Regulations, 1928, except that a soldier who so extends his service cannot prematurely terminate his engagement by giving 3 months' notice, but will be required to complete the full period for which he has extended.

Extension of service will be carried out on Army Form B 221 amended as follows:—

The heading should read—

“Descriptive return of a soldier who is desirous of extending his period of Army service under the provisions of Section 78 (1) (c) of the Army Act, and paragraph 6 of A.O. 355 of 1927.”

The following will be substituted for certificate (a)—

“(a) I am desirous of extending the terms of my present re-enlistment for a further years days with the Colours and I understand that, if at the termination of such period of Army service I am serving beyond the seas, I shall be liable to serve for a further period of one year (or such lesser period as may be determined), after which I shall be sent home with all convenient speed.”

Extension will be subject to the approval of the officer i/c records and, in the case of soldiers serving on the India Unattached List, the head of the department under whom the soldier is serving in India.

the small number of copies of A.F. E 520 which have been indented for during the past few years, it is apparent that recruiters for the Territorial Army are not being supplied in all cases with the requisite recruiting authority in accordance with paragraph 157, Territorial Army Regulations, 1929.

It is therefore notified that this form must be issued to recruiters in order to conform with legal requirements as set out in Section 98 of the Army Act, as applied to the Territorial Army by Section 10 (1) of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, and steps should be taken accordingly.

2. In consequence of the change in the title of the Territorial Force to "Territorial Army" under the Territorial and Militia Act, 1921, copies of A.F. E 520 at present in stock are being amended by overprinting in order to meet immediate requirements. There is, however, no necessity to amend copies of the form now in use which were issued prior to the passing of the Act.
